Danger That Independence Will be Made the Sport of Demagogues.

GROVER TO TAMMANY

Says Present Social and Politi cal Conditions Should Warn Americans.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 4.—"Wholesome American sentiment, which demands Lairness and equality in sharing the blessings of our popular government," was urged in a letter from former President Grover Cleveland was read at the anmual Fourth of July celebration of Tammany Hall. Mr. Cleveland's letter was

"Princeton, N. J., June 25, 1901.

"Dear Sir.—I regret that my departure to-duty for my summer vacation, and plans 1 have made for its enjoyment, make it impossible for me to join the Tanamany Socrety in celebrating the coming anniversary of American independence, it seems to me that present social and pointual conditions warm all patriotic Americans that there is need of a revival of the popular sentiments and dispositions, in which the Declaration of Independence had its origin, which made it the foundation of a great nation, and, in which is found the promise of its perpetuity.

"The intent of that instrument was not only to declare the equality of man and the independence it proclaimed, signified not only our people's freedom from a government, which lacked their consent, but also their lasting freedom in thought and action.

Sport of Demagogues.

Sport of Demagogues.

"No one can be so blind as not to see that in these days of grasping and consuming madness in the pursuit of wealth, with its consequent indifference in the political duty, there is danger that our social and industrial equality will be destroyed and our political independence inade the sport of demagogues.

"The celebration of independence Day should above all things be directed towards a resistance to these tendencies and to the promotion of a wholesome American sentiment, which demands fairness and cauality in sharing the blessings of our popular government, and unfettered independence and effectiveness in the excreises of political rights.

"Nor should it be forgotten that the fathers of the republic delivered the results of their work unreservedly to the care and management of all the people. Nothing can, therefore, be more startling or can indicate a greater reliance by designing hypocracy upon popular degeneracy than the impudent assertion by a political organization seeking to perpetuate its ascendancy, that none not within its fold is competent or honest enough to be trusted with governmental direction.

"Such arrogance as this is in "Such arrogance as this is in strange contrast with the sentiments that befit the profitable enjoyment of a general celebration by our people on a general celebration of the Independence Day.

"Yours very truly.

Hearst People Buoyant.

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 4.—The Hearst people remained buoyant during the day at his headquarters. His managers said that all the delegates that were instructed and pledged would stand firm and vote for Hearst to the last. They were assured by John P. Hopkins, of the Illinois delegation, that Hearst would receive the solid vote of Illinois as long as he was in the field. A large amount of Hearst literature, showing what he had done for reform and for the party, was distributed among the delegates to-day.

NEWPORT NEWS VA., July 4.—The troubles in the police force of Warwick county have resulted in a feud which probably will have to be settled in the courts. St. George Wilcox, and declared that the charges would be pressed and force of the charges would be pressed the next session of the Circuit Court. State Senator William B. SOUTH BOSTON, VA. July 4.—Fine weather conditions brought out a large crowd on the South Boston and Houston driving park to-day to watch the rival trotters and pacers battle for supremacy. THE CONVENTION BEGINS

Looks as if Watson Will Desert the Party--May Turn to Hearst.

(By Associated Press.) SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 4.—The five or six hundred delegates who were expected to attend the Populist National Convention in this city to-day, did not put in an appearance and when the con-vention was called to order this afternoon, there were fewer than two hundred delegates in the hall. There were hundreds of empty seats in the large State arsenal, where the convention was held. Only twenty-three States were representd in the convention.

The convention was called to order by Vice-Chairman Edmiston, of Nebraska, and the call was read by J. A. Perker, of and the call was read by J. A. Perker, of Kentucky, National Chairman. Ex-Congressman L. H. Weller, of Iowa, was made the temporary chairman, and Charles Q. DeFrance, of Nebraska, temporary secretary. After the temporary organization had been perfected, the convention listened to addresses by ex-Senator Wm. V. Allen, of Nebraska, and Rev. A. E. Nelson, of St. Louis. After the appointment of the various committees, the convention took a recess until evening. J. H. Edmiston was chosen chairman of the Commisce on Resolutions.

The Names Mentioned.

The Names Mentioned.

The Names Mentioned.

Only three names are mentioned now in connection with the nomination for President—William V. Allen, of Nebraska; Samuel W. Williams, of Indiana, and Thomas E. Webon, of Georgia.

Former Senator Allen refuses to enter in a scramble for the nomination, and practically said to-night that he would not accept the honor if there was going to be any contest over it. He wants the nomination to come unanimously.

Mr. Watson is in a similar state of mind regarding the head of the ticket, and has written a letter to the effect that he does not want to be the standard-hearer for the Populists this year.

Mr. Williams, of Indiana, is leaving nothing undone to capture the nomination, and his friends say that if he cannot get first place on the ticket he is willing to take second. It is generally understood that a large number of delegates favor the Indiana man for Vice-President.

gates favor the Indiana man for Vice-President.

It is understood that former Senator Allen will have more to say about the platform than any other delegate. The sentiment favors the adoption of the Omaha platform of 1892, with planks for postal savings and initiative and referendum.

One Killed, Many Injured.

AUGUSTA, GA., July 4.—A special to the Chronicle from Sharon, Ga., says:

At 4 o'clock this afternoon at Hilman, where thousands of negroes assemble every Fourth of July, a riot was begun by the complete them, when several other negroes interfered, causing a general riot. Guns, r.stols, knives and sticks were used freely. Newton Harris was shot through the stomach and killed outright. His brother, Ned Harris, was cut across the head and scriously injured. Ed. Hillier was shot in the arm, but not seriously, and an old colored woman was shot in the face with a gun. Her injury is serious. Lucius A. Moore, near whose residence the riot began, interfered in an effort to nulet the mob. He received some small shot from a gun just over the heart, but was not seriously wounded. Bob Howell was shot in the back and face and seriously hurt. Rob Moore was seriously cut on the neck, and several others received small wounds.

The negroes fied for their lives in every May Not be Presented.

It was learned to-day that Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia, has written a letter to John G. Holliday, of the frourth ficorgia District, who is a delegate to the convention, which may result in Watson's name not being presented to the convention. Holliday admits that he has a letter from Watson, but declines to make it public at this time or discuss it. When asked if the letter was a declination of the nomination for President, Mr. Holliday replied that Watson was not seeking the honor, and he did not know whether Watson's name would go before the convention or not. It is known that Watson is a friend of William R. Hearst, and it is said he favored a postponement of the Populist Convention until after the St. Louis Convention until after the St. Louis Convention had been held, and if Hearst was ignored by the Democratis, then Watson favored taking up Hearst. Mr. Holliday said to-day that Watson was and redmirer of Hearst, but he helleved he would be true to the teachings of Populism.

As soon as Holliday received the Watson.

would be true to the teachings of Populisism.

As soon as Holliday received the Watson letter, he held a conference with the Indiana delegates, who are booming Judge Williams, of that State for president and after the conference was over, Holliday said that if Watson's name was not presented to the convention, the southern delegates would support Williams.

Watson's letter has cast' considerable gloom over the delegates, as many fear his is going to desert the party and they feel that with former-Senator Marion Butter out and with Jo. A. Parker going to retire from active work in the party there is little use to continue the fight. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
